Notes:

1. The CAM program is designed for students who have a strong interest in hands-on experience both in the classroom as well as in the industry. Core courses ensure students with a knowledgeable foundation to operate and setup computer numerical control machines using our Computer Aided Manufacturing laboratory. Master CAM software is the designing software used to generate G and M codes for product prototyping. The CAM program prepares students for an entry level job as a CNC operator or CNC programmer. The software and machines give students the most experience possible, and helps develop skills for our local manufacturing workforce. A comprehensive set of undergraduate courses are offered for students interested in working towards the completion of proficiency awards, such as, Associate in Science degree in CNC Operation and CAD/CAM programming.
2. Some of the above courses may have prerequisites. See the catalog or schedule of classes.
3. The Associate Degree requires the completion of the major (22 units) with a "C" grade or better grade in each course. Students must complete one of the three different general education patterns: option 1 – Fresno City College General Education, option 2 – CSU GE Breadth– California State University General Education, OR option 3 – IGETC – Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum for a total of 60 semester units minimum with a 2.0 or better GPA.
